WELCOME ADDRESS:

WELCOME ADDRESS OF NATIONAL DIRECTOR TO 2025 NATIONAL POSEC DELEGATES' MEETING

Beloved brothers and sisters in the Lord, I joyfully welcome you to this year's National POSEC Delegates' Meeting in the precious name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

It is a great privilege to gather again as leaders of FCS, a ministry that God has raised to shine His light in schools and campuses across Nigeria. Each of you represents a vital part of God's ongoing work of transformation among students. I sincerely appreciate your commitment and sacrifices in advancing the vision of FCS in your various campuses.

Our theme, “Godly Arrows: Forged for Impact, Called to Lead,” taken from Psalm 127:4-5, is a follow-up on the FCS national theme for 2025, which we have been considering since January. It is a reminder that leadership in FCS is not a position to occupy, but a calling to embody. We are God's arrows, shaped, sharpened, and sent forth for His purpose. The forging process may be intense, but it is God's way of preparing us for lasting impact in our generation.

As we meet over these days, I encourage each of us to open our hearts to the Lord's refining fire. Let every session, Bible study, discussion, and prayer time be a moment of divine impartation. The Holy Spirit is ready to renew our convictions, rekindle our passion for Christ, and refocus our leadership towards kingdom fruitfulness.

May this meeting mark a fresh season of personal revival for each of us and corporate revival for our branches, campuses and the FCS as a whole. May we leave here as leaders whose hearts are steadfast, whose hands are strengthened, and whose lives are fully yielded to God's mission in our campuses and beyond.

Once again, I welcome you to this life-shaping gathering. The Lord Himself is here to forge you as His arrows for impact! Open your hearts and minds to Him!

BABARINDE I. PHILIP

National Director

DSM Welcome Address:

I welcome you Key leaders, to the 2025 National POSEC Delegate Meeting under the subtheme "Godly Arrows: Forged for Impact, Called to Lead" (Psalm 127:4-5). We're thrilled to have you here as we explore what it means to be shaped by God for a purpose, just like arrows crafted for a warrior's hand.

In Psalm 127:4-5, we're reminded that children born in one's youth are like arrows in a warrior's hands, equipped for impact and influence. As student leaders, you're called to lead with purpose, guided by God's Word and empowered by His Spirit.

Let's take every moment to acknowledge God's goodness, faithfulness and privilege given to you to serve others in spite of all limitations. This opportunity granted you and me is for us to maximize by relearning, unlearning and to learn as His word comes our way through his prepared vessels in this meeting.

As we delve into this theme, may we be inspired to surrender to God's shaping, trusting that He equips us for the tasks ahead. Let's open our hearts to His message, and may our time together be filled with His presence and peace.

Never allow distractors take your mind away from this fountain that is about breaking forth and also don't be a distraction to anybody.

Note! Qualitative leadership is born out of a loaded heart who has intentionally eaten well under the master.

Never take any session casual or with any sense of unseriousness. Be rest assured that God is here and so be open to respond to him passionately in all session.

Welcome once again, and let's embark on this journey together, forging ahead as godly arrows, called to lead and to impact our world.

Danlami Bitrus Otsa

Director of Schools and Missions.

BIBLE STUDY

THEME: Godly Arrows: Forged for Impact, Called to Lead

Text: Psalm 127:1-5

Memory Verse: Psalm 127:4-5 - Like arrows in the hands of a warrior are sons born in one's youth. Blessed is the man whose quiver is full of them. They will not be put to shame when they contend with their enemies in the gate. (NIV)

STUDY 1:

GODLY ARROWS – FORGED FOR IMPACT

Introduction

Although God uses men to accomplish His divine purposes on earth, He is never in a hurry to bring anyone into spiritual leadership. No matter how urgent the need for leaders in His work, God never becomes anxious to hurriedly send out unprepared, untrained, and unrefined men into His service. Instead, He takes time to prepare every vessel that he will use, just as a warrior carefully forges, sharpens, and polishes his arrows before going to the battle.

The fact that God requires godly arrows implies that there are also ungodly arrows in Satan's hands, which he uses to kill, steal, and destroy (John 10:10) in the ongoing battle between light and darkness. Our goal in this study, therefore, is to understand the ongoing battle, to know the kind of men God uses to fight, and to allow Him to prepare us to be men that He can use to fight the enemies at the gates. This, He did with Moses, John the Baptist, Paul, and even our Lord Jesus. In God's economy, preparation comes before placement. Men are made to make others, prepared to prepare others, and impacted to impact others. If we are going to make a lasting impact and advance His kingdom in our generation, our case cannot be different. As we study together, may none of us miss out in the place of preparation, in Jesus' name. Amen.

Discussion Questions

1. Differentiate between godly and ungodly arrows using Psalm 1:1–2 and 2 Timothy 3:12–13.
2. Identify other names or symbols for godly arrows from these Scriptures: 2 Timothy 2:21; 1 Peter 2:9; Isaiah 41:15; Obadiah 21; Jeremiah 51:20; Joel 2:2,7.
3. Discuss the process God uses to forge and prepare His arrows for impact. (Mark 3:13–14; 2 Timothy 2:15; Ephesians 6:18; 1 Thessalonians 5:17; Isaiah 49:2).
4. Examine how God prepared these Bible characters for their assignments—Moses, Esther, Elisha, Paul, and David. What can we learn from each of them? Support your answers with Scriptures.

Conclusion

Failure to undergo the process of divine preparation often leads to spiritual dullness and ineffectiveness. Arrows that are not sharpened or trimmed cannot be useful to the Master.

God desires to build His Church through prepared vessels who will advance His purposes in schools, churches, and marketplaces. Can God depend on you as His arrow – forged, shaped and sharpened?

STUDY 2:

GODLY ARROWS – CALLED TO LEAD

Text: Acts 20:25-35

Memory Verse: Acts 20:28 - Keep watch over yourselves and all the flock of which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers. Be shepherds of the church of God (NIV)

Introduction

Everything rises and falls on leadership. A leader can inspire, influence, and mobilise others to achieve meaningful goals, and vice versa. The reason God forges and prepares us, as discussed in study one, is to provide true leadership for His people and His work in our generation.

However, a call to leadership is a call to service. The hallmark of true leadership and service in God's Kingdom is faithfulness (1 Cor. 4:2). God is seeking men and women who are faithful in what is least, faithful with material things, faithful in handling His word and His people. This begins with self-leadership through discipline, integrity, and a heart to serve.

In this study, we will discuss God's mandates on those he has called and prepared as His vessels in this end-time, as well as the place of self-leadership in fulfilling those mandates. May the Holy Spirit illuminate our hearts and minds as we study His Word together. Amen.

Discussion Questions

1. Discuss from these Scriptures how leadership begins with the leader: Acts 20:28, 33–35; 1 Peter 5:2–3; 1 Samuel 12:2–5.
2. God never calls anyone without a purpose. Discuss God's purpose for calling leaders from these Scriptures: Ephesians 4:11-15; John 4:34; John 9:4; 2 Timothy 3:17; 2 Timothy 2:21; 1 Timothy 6:12.
3. What are God's expectations from those He has called into leadership? Colossians 1:28; Matthew 5:13-16; 2 Timothy 4:2; John 4:35; Matthew 28:19-20.
4. Identify and discuss the practical steps we must take to fulfil our calling as God's end-time arrows (leaders) on our campuses, from these Scriptures: Isaiah 60:1–2; Matthew 5:15–16; Luke 12:35; Ephesians 5:8, 13–18; Micah 2:10; Deuteronomy 2:24–25.

Conclusion

Godly leaders are spiritual leaders. Only those who are led by the Spirit can lead for God. Such leaders are men and women of integrity, character, vision, humility, and wisdom. They inspire others, make decisive choices, initiate change, and remain humble regardless of achievement or position. Are you such a leader? What decision and commitment are you making as a result of this study? Turn to God in prayer. Call on Him to shape, sharpen, and strengthen you to be His arrow, who will make an indelible impact in your generation.

You shall not disappoint God in your generation in Jesus' name.

HYMNS

1 THE GREAT PHYSICIAN NOW IS NEAR

1 The great Physician now is near,
the sympathizing Jesus;
He speaks the drooping heart to cheer,
oh! hear the voice of Jesus.

Refrain:

*Sweetest note in seraph song,
sweetest name on mortal tongue;
sweetest carol ever sung,
Jesus, blessed Jesus.*

2 Your many sins are all forgiven,
oh! hear the voice of Jesus;
go on your way in peace to heaven,
and wear a crown with Jesus. [Refrain]

3 All glory to the risen Lamb!
I now believe in Jesus;
I love the blessed Savior's name,
I love the name of Jesus. [Refrain]

4 His name dispels my guilt and fear,
no other name but Jesus;
oh! how my soul delights to hear the charming name of Jesus. [Refrain]

2 STAND UP, STAND UP FOR JESUS.

1 Stand up, stand up for Jesus,
ye soldiers of the cross;
lift high His royal banner,
it must not suffer loss.
From vict'ry unto vict'ry
His army shall He lead,
till ev'ry foe is vanquished,
and Christ is Lord indeed.

2 Stand up, stand up for Jesus,
the trumpet call obey;
forth to the mighty conflict,
in this His glorious day.
Ye that are brave now serve him
against unnumbered foes;
let courage rise with danger,
and strength to strength oppose.

3 Stand up, stand up for Jesus,
stand in His strength alone;
the arm of flesh will fail you,
ye dare not trust your own.
Put on the gospel armor,
each piece put on with prayer;
where duty calls or danger,
be never wanting there.

4 Stand up, stand up for Jesus,
the strife will not be long;
this day the noise of battle,
the next the victor's song.
To him who over-cometh
a crown of life shall be;
they with the King of Glory
shall reign eternally.

2

3. MY HOPE IS BUILT ON NOTHING LESS

1 My hope is built on nothing less than Jesus' blood and righteousness;
I dare not trust the sweetest frame,
but wholly lean on Jesus' name.

Refrain:

On Christ, the solid Rock, I stand:
all other ground is sinking sand;
all other ground is sinking sand.

2 When darkness veils his lovely face,
I rest on his unchanging grace;
in every high and stormy gale,
my anchor holds within the veil.

3 His oath, his covenant, his blood, support me in the whelming flood;
when all around my soul gives way,
he then is all my hope and stay.

4 When he shall come with trumpet sound,
O may I then in him be found:
dressed in his righteousness alone,
faultless to stand before the throne.

FADING AWAY LIKE THE STARS OF THE MORNING,

4.

1 Fading away like the stars of the morning,
Losing their light in the glorious sun-Thus would we pass from the earth and its
toiling,
Only remembered by what we have done.
Only remembered, only remembered,
Only remembered by what we have done;
Thus would we pass from the earth and its
toiling,
Only remembered by what we have done.

2 Shall we be miss'd though by others succeeded,
Reaping the fields we in springtime have sown?
No, for the sowers may pass from their labors,
Only remembered by what they have done.
[Refrain]

3 Only the truth that in life we have spoken,
Only the seed that on earth we have sown;
These shall pass onward when we are forgotten,
Fruits of the harvest and what we have done. [Refrain]

4 Oh, when the Saviour shall make up His jewels,
When the bright crowns of rejoicing are won,
Then shall His weary and faithful disciples,
All be remembered by what they have done.
[Refrain]

5 IF I HAVE NOT FORSAKEN ALL

If I have not forsaken all
In answer to Thy loving call;
If I've kept something back from Thee,
Lord, give me light, that I might see.

Lord, help me judge myself each day,
To walk this new and living way.
I seek Thy grace with all my heart,
To be made pure, just as Thou art.

If anything upon this earth
Attracts me with its sense of worth;
If money has a hold on me,
Lord, give me light, that I might see.

If all my life revolves round me
And thoughts of my own family;
If I am living selfishly,
Lord, give me light, that I might see.

Is there some good I should have done?
Is there some soul I should have won?
Have I hurt someone thoughtlessly?
Lord, give me light, that I might see.

If someone's failure has not wrought
Concern and care within my heart;
If I've judged others inwardly,
Lord, give me light, that I might see.

If I have cared for man's applause,
Or sought my own and shunned the cross;
If I have feared man's mockery,
Lord, give me light, that I might see.

If I've not sought Thy pow'r in prayer,
Because of earthly toils and care;
If I'm not longing after Thee,
Lord, give me light, that I might see.

"TAKE MY LIFE AND LET IT BE"

1.
Take my life, and let it be Consecrated, Lord, to Thee.
Take my moments and my days,
Let them flow in ceaseless praise,
Let them flow in ceaseless praise.

2.
Take my hands, and let them move
At the impulse of Thy love.
Take my feet, and let them be
Swift and beautiful for Thee,
Swift and beautiful for Thee.

3.
Take my voice, and let me sing
Always, only, for my King.
Take my lips, and let them be
Filled with messages from Thee,
Filled with messages from Thee.

4.
Take my silver and my gold,
Not a mite would I withhold.
Take my intellect, and use
Every power as Thou shalt choose,
Every power as Thou shalt choose.

5.
Take my will, and make it Thine,
It shall be no longer mine.
Take my heart, it is Thine own,
It shall be Thy royal throne,
It shall be Thy royal throne.

6.
Take my love, my Lord, I pour
At Thy feet its treasure store.
Take myself, and I will be
Ever, only, all for Thee,
Ever, only, all for Thee.

6.

7 IN CHRIST ALONE

[Verse 1]

In Christ alone my hope is found
He is my light, my strength, my song
This cornerstone, this solid ground
Firm through the fiercest drought and storm
What heights of love, what depths of peace
When fears are stilled, when strivings cease
My comforter, my all in all
Here, in the love of Christ, I stand

[Verse 2]

In Christ alone, who took on flesh
Fullness of God in helpless babe
This gift of love and righteousness
Scorned by the ones He came to save
'Til on that cross, as Jesus died
The wrath of God was satisfied
For every sin, on Him, was laid
Here, in the death of Christ, I live

[Verse 3]

There in the ground, His body lay
Light of the world, by darkness, slain
Then bursting forth in glorious day
Up from the grave, He rose again
And as He stands in victory
Sin's curse has lost its grip on me
For I am His and He is mine
Bought with the precious blood of Christ
